

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAPLEMUSIC RECORDINGS WELCOMES NEVERENDING WHITE LIGHTS TO THE ROSTER
NEW ALBUM ACT 2: THE BLOOD AND THE LIFE ETERNAL IN STORES OCTOBER 30

August 28, 2007, Toronto, ON – The highly anticipated sophomore album from Juno-nominated Neverending White Lights, Act 2: The Blood and The Life Eternal, is set for release on October 30, 2007. MapleMusic Recordings is pleased to announce that Neverending White Lights has signed with the label for its second album, with distribution provided by Fontana North.

Following the format that made Act 1: Goodbye Friends Of The Heavenly Bodies such an incredible success, Daniel Victor, creator of Neverending White Lights, has assembled another remarkable cast of guest vocalists to star on Act 2, including Rob Dickinson of Catherine Wheel, Hawksley Workman, and Auf Der Mar. In addition to writing, arranging, and producing Act 2, Daniel Victor himself is featured on lead vocals on first single, "Always."

Critics described Act 1 as, "masterful, occasionally sobering and genius in its own right" (Hour). The album's unique feel and concept garnered multiple accolades, including a 2006 MuchMusic Video Award nomination for "The Grace" featuring Dallas Green, three 2006 CASBY Award nominations – Favourite New Artist, New Single and Indie Release - and a 2007 Juno Award nomination in the Best New Artist category. "The Grace," certified Gold as a digital download, was one of the Top 10 rock songs of 2006, and earned the band a Canadian Radio Music Award as Best New Group (Rock).

After 18 months of non-stop promotion on Act 1, Daniel Victor returned to the studio to work on Act 2. Once again recorded and mixed in his home, Act 2: The Blood And The Life Eternal continues Neverending White Lights' musical journey, revisiting and expanding the vivid sonic landscape created by Daniel Victor's epic writing, performance and production.
