

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOW LEVEL FLIGHT PLAYING CANADIAN IDOL RESULTS SHOW SEPTEMBER 4
Bon Jovi and Avril Lavigne also confirmed to play Idol Top 10 Shows

August 29, 2007, Toronto, ON – Low Level Flight is excited to announce that they will be playing for a viewership of millions on September 4, as they take the stage as performers on the Canadian Idol Results Show on CTV. Low Level Flight is fronted by the Juno-nominated, platinum selling, first-ever Canadian Idol winner, Ryan Malcolm.

Low Level Flight joins the list of incredible artists like Maroon 5, Rihanna and Enrique Iglesias, who have already appeared on Canadian Idol this season, as well as Avril Lavigne and Bon Jovi, who are among the upcoming guest performers. Canadian Idol is Canada's most-watched summer series.

The band released its debut album Urgency on March 27, 2007, on I Heart Records/Angeline/Fontana North and has been busy promoting the album and playing the summer festival circuit. Urgency's first single "Change For Me" reached the number one spot on the MuchMoreMusic.com Countdown. The second single "Say" has been released to radio just in time for a fall cross-country tour, to be announced shortly. Low Level Flight also recently shot an episode of Star! TV's "Making It", a new half-hour reality-based program that traces the transformation of people in the entertainment world as they struggle to achieve their dreams. The Low Level Flight episode will be the season opener of "Making It" this fall.

Don't miss Low Level Flight's performance of "Say" on Canadian Idol this coming Tuesday, September 4, 8 p.m. ET, PT, AT, MT and 7 p.m. CT.
